Comments
The lectures and student–led discussions were the most helpful parts of this course. Professor Tian is a fantastic professor and was extremely knowledgeable on the periods of history that we studied in class. She asked phenomenal questions and provided readings that were both interesting and detailed to help us engage with the course content.
Seminars were very intellectually stimulating, office hours were great
The discussions were incredibly fruitful, I was impressed by the Professor's sense of when to let us talk and when to interject.
Lectures were a bit bland but Prof Tian is a very kind person and easy grader
Mainly lectures and student–hosted presentations and discussions.

Thinking about your time in the class, what aspect of the instructor's teaching contributed most to your learning?

Comments
Professor Tian's knowledge on the history of Asia—particularly East Asia—and how colonization and imperialism touched on these areas is impressive to say the least. She was super helpful in office hours and always encouraging during and outside of class.
Prof Yuan Tian's knowledge and willingness to help students learn and understand the materials contributed the most
It was always clear that she knew exactly what she was talking about. Incredibly competent teacher that could satisfactorily answer every strange question I thought of.
Every class a different person led discussion, that was helpful

What could the instructor modify to help you learn more?

Comments
Nothing!
Lectures were kind of boring
Provide more instructions and participation for student hosted presentation and discussions.
