What are the most important things that you learned in this course? Please reflect on the knowledge and skills you gained.

Comments
I learned so much about scene work! Pam really helped us think through important elements of scenes, such as motive, tactics, setting, etc. She was always helpful while never being degrading. She did a great job of meeting everyone where they were, whether it was someone's first acting class or their 20th.
energy
Basics of acting, memorizing lines, staging, getting into character.

Describe how aspects of this course (lectures, discussions, labs, assignments, etc.) contributed to your learning.

Comments
I really enjoyed starting class with warm up games. I felt very connected to my classmates by the end of the course.
acting exercises
Great environment, Pam teaches you to interact and not be scared.
Daily classroom tasks and performing scenes from plays helped us get a hands–on experience.

Thinking about your time in the class, what aspect of the instructor's teaching contributed most to your learning?

Comments
Pam was a wonderful instructor! She encouraged peer feedback, so we ended up learning a lot from each other.
Her passion
Great communication, she was very fun and fair too.
The instructor always had new tasks for us, whether that was watching a play, learning lines, or coming up with our own scenes.

What could the instructor modify to help you learn more?
