What are the most important things that you learned in this course? Please reflect on the knowledge and skills you gained.

Comments
Different techniques of visual art, following sets of instructions to create art, looking at art from a different way; understanding anything can be art and that much of art lies in the creative process rather than the finished product.
gesture, blind contour, contour, value drawings, etc
Drawing with different materials, conceptual art

Describe how aspects of this course (lectures, discussions, labs, assignments, etc.) contributed to your learning.

Comments
The interactive and creative way our classes were run was very helpful
We had weekly readings and discussion posts which were really interesting and tied in well to what our professor would emphasize in class
Lectures were very fun and informative

Thinking about your time in the class, what aspect of the instructor's teaching contributed most to your learning?

Comments
Throughout class, we would stop at points and walk around to see what other students were drawing and give minor feedback. It was a nice opportunity to see what worked and what didn't in terms of technique/approach etc
Instructor was very well–prepared and enthusiastic.

What could the instructor modify to help you learn more?

Erin Gregory
Erin Gregory, she graded our weekly sketchbook assignments. She was very kind and it was nice to have another person participate in class critiques

Comments
This class requires a significant time commitment, but it's overall very fun. Bethany also does a great job of recognizing that everyone is coming from different artistic backgrounds and leads the class accordingly
Not difficult, more about personal improvement than raw drawing ability
