Comments
We did yoga in class. Just yoga.
In class time was super useful. We learned most of the poses, and it was really fun! The assignments were also useful in order to reflect on our experiences in the practices.
The projects were all very applied. They involved creating art and presenting it. This helped students understand and learn more.
We had a lot of discussions and it was cool to hear everyone's points of view. I think the yoga practices we did were the most instructive.
Did a lot of Yoga in the classes, some field trips(art institute/ratner) provided change in pace.
Class time
I think the yoga aspects made it very calming and enjoyable with very low--stress.
Doing art immediately after yoga in the form of taking pictures allowed me to see if and how I looked at things differently.
discussion on projects, seeing my peer's work

It is literally a yoga class
Yoga is more physically intensive than I presumed, so don't sign up unless you want a bit of a workout :)
Would highly recommend for anyone who wants to learn how to do Yoga, or even is just interested in what Yoga is. No judgement in class Yoga wise, though Tina can be a bit intense at times.
Course was actually really fun and the professor is so sweet 10/10 recommend

Thinking about your time in the class, what aspect of the instructor's teaching contributed most to your learning?

Comments
I loved Prof. Wang's demonstrations in class of the yoga poses, and she really helped every one of us ensure that our body was in the correct position
Tina is a fantastic teacher of the yoga practices.
Professor Wang was always very kind and understanding when we had any concerns. She explained all of the poses in a great deal of detail so we could learn how to properly perform them and not be injured in any way.
The Yoga practices
Her dedication to yoga and how she encourages us to speak out our thoughts
I loved how kind and respectful she is to everyone. I also enjoy the slow-pace of the class and her flexibility and theory based teaching.

What could the instructor modify to help you learn more?

Not do yoga in an art class?
N/A
N/A
I think that at times it became difficult to stay focused – I think that incorporating more active art-making into the class would help break up the practices a bit.
Would actually prefer for a larger focus to be on Yoga, rather than the projects throughout the quarter
Clearer instructions on projects would be nice
Lay out expectations of assignments better not too difficult, but a lot of fun! highly recommend Prof. Tina Wang for art core Beginner level

I do not think this course was difficult at all (albeit the readings for each class were sometimes fairly long). Mastering the yoga also definitely takes a fair bit of work but it is very fun!
Need to attend every class, and have projects every three weeks. Really enjoyed the class a lot, especially the Yoga part which grew on me, would recommend for anyone just trying to finish their art core.
First week you might not be interested but its very worth it trust.
Easy
No background experience necessary at all
