What are the most important things that you learned in this course? Please reflect on the knowledge and skills you gained.

Comments
How to speak and write kreyol
The organization and use of the Kreyol language
I learned fundamental grammar and vocabulary for the Haitian Kreyol language. I am leaving this class with a strong listening and reading comprehension. I am also able to form well thought out sentences and thoughts in the target language. Additionally, I have learned cultural components in Haitian culture.

Describe how aspects of this course (lectures, discussions, labs, assignments, etc.) contributed to your learning.

Comments
do the readings and talk to someone you know
The in-class lessons helped me learn how to use vocabulary. The additional cultural assignments were great and added to my knowledge of the language.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– Quizzes: Helped me apply course concepts to writing and reading.</li> <li>– Special Projects: Allowed me to practice my krèyol in a formal setting. I enjoyed that Gerdine encouraged us to explore topics of interest.</li> <li>– Homework: Reiterated class lectures and discussions in class</li> <li>– Lectures: They were simple, easy to follow and reflect on. I appreciate that Gerdine's course is outline by lecture via the syllabus.</li> </ul>

Additional comments about the course:

Comments
Professor Ulysse is dedicated to immersing students in the Haitian culture, she is currently the best professor I've had so far in any subject.
AN amazing instructor that bonds with her students and ensures their success.
If you are thinking about taking this course, you must. There are very few classes were a professor's passion shines through teaching. Gerdine is one of the few. She cares about her students as individuals and people. More importantly, she creates a class environment that is joyful, comfortable, and safe. If there is any language class that I would recommend to those fulfilling the language requirement it would be this one. To add, Krèyol is a fun, straightforward language that has structures that are easily understood by english speakers not just romance language speakers.

I would recommend this course to:

	No	Yes
Highly-motivated and well-prepared students	0.00%	100.00%
Anyone interested in the topic	0.00%	100.00%

Thinking about your time in the class, what aspect of the instructor's teaching contributed most to your learning?

Comments
The slides are posted after each class.
Shes just the goat u gotta take her class
Her ability to mark homework, quizzes, and exams helped me move forward in my learning.
I am most grateful for Gerdine's flexibility throughout this quarter. Many times students were late or failed to acknowledge guidelines for assignments but she still maintained a welcome environment throughout. I also appreciate her ability to meet outside of class. Anytime I wanted to practice Kreyol or discuss course expectations she was available via email and office hours.

What could the instructor modify to help you learn more?

Comments
n/a nothing
I wish the latter half of the quarter wasn't so packed with assignments.
I would have really enjoyed to have more listening components to the class. I know that the homework and cultural assignments encourage this but any additional listening would have been really fun to incorporate during or outside of class.

Comments
I'm a heritage/native speaker who took this class to increase my writing. If you have a background in any romance language, you'll find the class manageable
This course is challenging in all the right ways. In the past, I have taken course work in Spanish, French, and Portuguese. However, I believe that Kreyol is a good introduction to some who are considering romance languages but are not too confident in their understanding of grammar.
