Were you satisfied with the materials (texts, audios, videos, exercises, etc.)?

Please explain:

Comments
All the course materials helped me understand the material for the test, whether that being videos, readings, etc.
The material did well in teaching me.
The course book was expensive and we also had to buy an online subscription to a website that had our homework activities, so the price was doubled. However, despite being told that buying the physical version of the textbook was mandatory, the website that had our homework also had a digital version of the textbook, which made the physical book actually unnecessary. I wish I had been informed of this instead of being told that the physical book was mandatory, because I could have saved a substantial amount of money. Other than that, the materials were fine, although scheduling on LinguaMeeting was a bit confusing.
the materials were helpful for my learning but could have been more understandable
I do not like linguameeting. the class-like format of the site is worse than more direct conversation sites like talkabroad

What did you learn about culture through language?

Comments
I learned about numerous Spanish-speaking countries and have a better understanding of the differences between these places.
I learned much about Latin American cities and many places which make up a rich cultural network.

If Discussion Board/Blog Tools were used in your course, how useful did you find them?

N/A

How useful did you find the required out of class aural/oral activities (e.g. cultural activities, conversational practice, activities of your choice, films, etc.)?

Comments
I found the cultural activities extremely interesting and engaging.
The cultural activities were not very helpful, the lingua meetings were.
The conversational practice was very useful for testing my ability to communicate with Spanish, but the cultural activities were less useful and more like a task to get out of the way. I learned more about culture from my conversational practice with my conversation partner, who was from Spain.
i did not really enjoy the linguameetings because i felt that they didnt really contribute to my learning

Overall, would you say you had a good instructor?

Please explain:

Comments
He was very accommodating and kind throughout the course and made sure everyone had a strong understanding of the material before we were tested on it.
James was a very encouraging instructor.
James is an amazing instructor! He's kind, patient, and very welcoming, which helped put me at ease as someone taking Spanish after taking a break from language classes for a few years. He is very understanding of unusual circumstances or issues that make completing your work on time difficult, and is willing to work with students to find a way to work things out. I always felt respected and welcome in class, and I would highly encourage anyone thinking about taking a class with James as an instructor to do so.
i liked my instructor and he was very passionate about spanish
James was great, both with teaching and helping outside of class
