What are the most important things that you learned in this course? Please reflect on the knowledge and skills you gained.

Comments
The creative writing process in general. I would say that I'm not the most creative person but the class was incredibly good in exploring that aspect of my being.
Patrick Morrissey is the bEST. great poetry learning and reflecting and writing
How to write Haiku, Ghazals, and Sonnets.
Different poetic forms
I learned how to read and analyze poems through the lens of a writer. I also became a lot more comfortable writing and editing my own poetry.

Describe how aspects of this course (lectures, discussions, labs, assignments, etc.) contributed to your learning.

Comments
Lectures were fantastic as we discussed and tried to break down aspects of poetry including what methods and techniques authors would use.
Loved how we got to write poetry and get feedback from classmates in a stress free enviornment
We read poems of each form we covered (Haiku, Ghazals, and Sonnets) and then wrote some of our own and reviewed each other's work in workshops.
Discussions helped to learn the form, workshops helped to go through my writing and evaluate it.
The in-class discussions were a really nice way to break down key elements of famous writers' work.

MEGA KNOWLEDGE AND CHILLAXED NATURE
Morrissey was so helpful– his feedback is amazing and it's clear he loves what he teaches
Professor Morrissey provided really helpful feedback on all of my poems. This allowed me to make edits to better my poems and become a better writer.

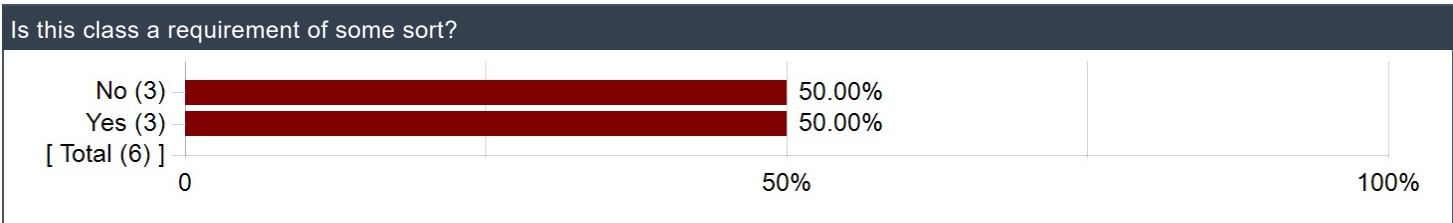

What could the instructor modify to help you learn more?

Comments
I'm not much of a poet and this classes expectations were very reasonable and didn't require backgrounds in poetry.
not hard but super fun
Having taken the previous PATH course, this class was fine
Very easy– great art core class
The class is really approachable regardless of your background in poetry.
