What are the most important things that you learned in this course? Please reflect on the knowledge and skills you gained.

Comments
I learned more advanced grammar and how to speak more fluently in French.
French grammar—talking about things in the past, hypotheticals, etc.
A bunch of French grammars.
I learned how to speak better French and to be more on alert for the genders of things in French.

Describe how aspects of this course (lectures, discussions, labs, assignments, etc.) contributed to your learning.

Comments
Classes were helpful for reviewing topics introduced in the homework.
Discussions in class were helpful for improving communication skills. Assignments helped practice/learn grammar rules.
All in class discussions helped me a lot.
I think talking in groups and doing exercises together was really helpful, but I would appreciate if the professor went slower through the exercises.

Thinking about your time in the class, what aspect of the instructor's teaching contributed most to your learning?

Comments
The professor did a good job correcting our speaking in a helpful manner.
Going over grammar rules and exercises, and encouraging discussion amongst students
He would promptly help us with French.
They were very engaging and made sure everyone spoke.

What could the instructor modify to help you learn more?

Comments
I wish we did a bit less discussions in class and more time practicing writing.
provide edits for the second versions of our essays
NA
Slowing down when we do group exercises and go over answers and giving people time to comprehend the answers and ask questions.

Comments
took AP French in high school, placed into 201, and took 201 and 202 prior to this course
It was a good fit.
It is good for people with a competency in French, but speaking abilities is most important.
