Were you satisfied with the text?

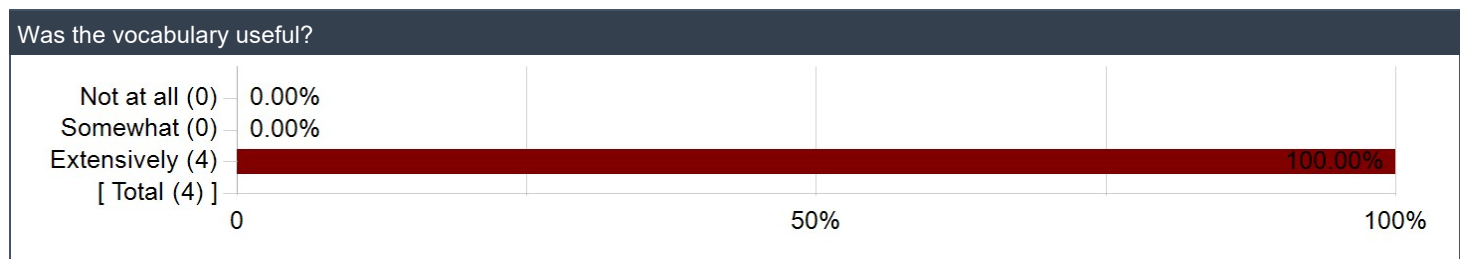

Did the instructor follow the text closely?

Explain:

Comments
The course was organized around the chapter progression of the textbook (mostly), so aside from jumping around in the workbook occasionally, the course follows the text very well & assignments are communicated directly and clearly.
Used Keller and Russell's Learn to Read Latin. Easy enough to follow, topics were introduced w/ original slideshows which were very helpful
The textbook is very thorough, so thorough that we didn't have time to go over all the nitty-gritty details in class followed very closely

Was the vocabulary useful?

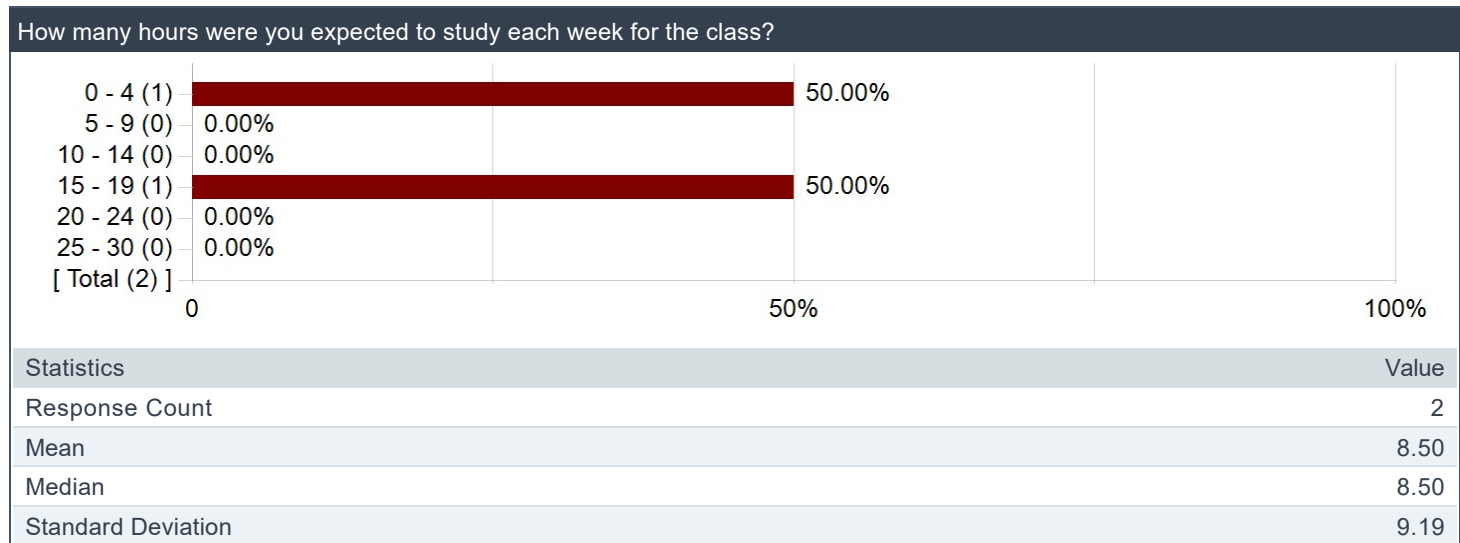

Why?

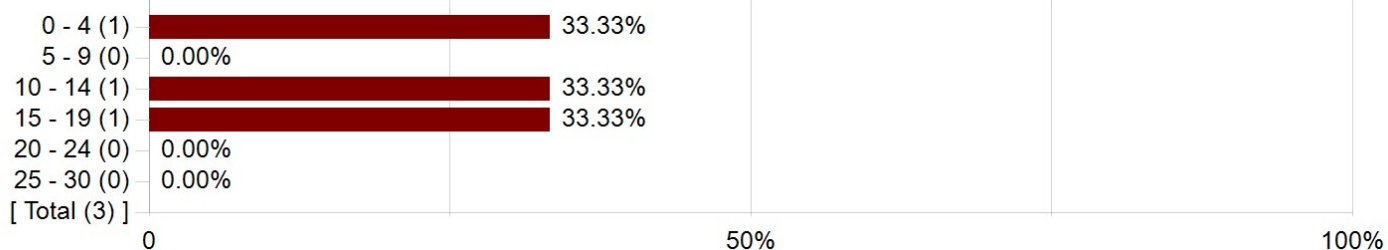

Comments
How else are you going to learn the language? lol
vocab was helpful to know for exams/class discussion etc

Describe the format of the class (lecture, drills, etc.). Was this format productive? Please be specific.

Comments
The format was very useful (lectures on new material leading into popcorn-style practice of it in class). It's a good way to drill the information into you. I like it.
Alternated between practice sentences, reading Latin text, lectures– a good mix of different things
We had a mixture of lecture, in-class translation exercises, and in-class readings. This was very productive, especially the exercises we did together in class. I would have liked to go over the homework exercises more often, because sometimes I had specific questions from the book. I also loved the way Rebecca led our readings from Latin texts— she was particularly good at helping students through confusing sentences without simply giving away the answer, asking good prompting questions.
