Were you satisfied with the materials (texts, audios, videos, exercises, etc.)?

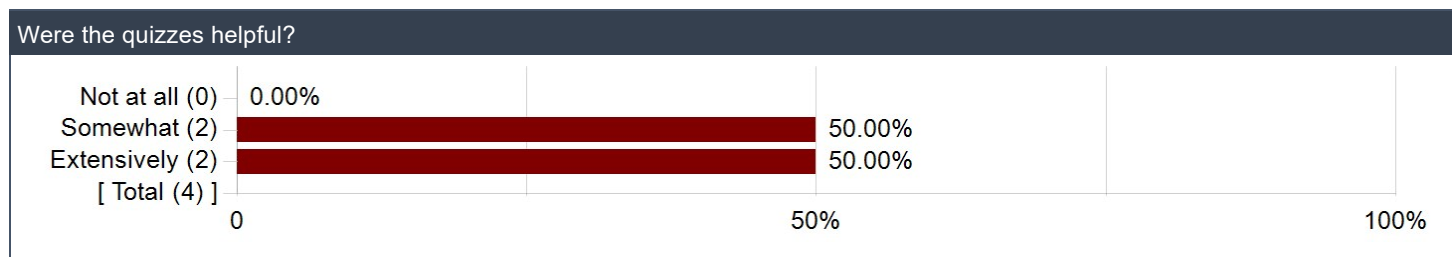

Please explain:

Comments
Some of the listening assignments were difficult because of the audio quality, not because of content level.
The audios were always very realistic.

I learned about day-to-day life in France (like dinner etiquette, etc).

If Discussion Board/Blog Tools were used in your course, how useful did you find them?

Comments
N/A

How useful did you find the required out of class aural/oral activities (e.g. cultural activities, conversational practice, activities of your choice, films, etc.)?

Comments
They encouraged me to engage with the language outside of class, which helped me get more practice, especially in listening to native speakers.
I found the class oral activities (conversation practice with partner) very helpful because I could not prepare for it and therefore understood what my speaking level was.
I enjoyed all of them. The redaction was a great way to hone our writing and the cultural activities were also enriching.

The instructor was very open to answering our questions and helping us out when we were having difficulty understanding specific grammatical concepts and the use of certain phrases.

My instructor was very organised and got through the syllabus in a systematic way. However, sometimes his responses to grammatical questions asked in class were a little confusing.

He was just a great French teacher – clear, organized, passionate, very helpful and accomodating

In what way?

The class sessions were very speaking-based, and it helped me think of how to speak on the spot, without preparing ahead of time. It helped me have more natural conversations in the language.

I learned so many new tenses this quarter and that has enabled me to communicate with more nuance. Additionally, I am a more confident speaker because of all the conversation practice we got during class, in the oral exams and through TalkAbroad.

It was a great review. Significant wouldn't be my word choice but that's because of where I am as a French student. Not to do with the quality of the class.

This course pushed my knowledge of the language beyond what I knew from high school. I also just had a lot of fun in the class because the topics were very interesting to have conversations about.
