What are the most important things that you learned in this course? Please reflect on the knowledge and skills you gained.

Comments
Beyond gaining language ability, it helped reframe the way that I think about language itself!
Attik Greek Grammar and reading skills.
I think the most important thing I learned is how to break down and read a Greek text.

Describe how aspects of this course (lectures, discussions, labs, assignments, etc.) contributed to your learning.

Comments
The lectures and readings helped a lot in applying the knowledge from the text, and the comprehensive notes made on OneNote allowed for easy revision as well.
Lectures are helpful in clarifying grammar point ,the assignments provides students with chances to practice their reading and writing skills.
I think the composition assignments were extremely useful for learning Greek.

Thinking about your time in the class, what aspect of the instructor's teaching contributed most to your learning?

Comments
The way the course was structured and presented really helped with approaching the language. Professor Radding was also very encouraging and helpful when it came to clearing doubts and classroom discussions.
very clear demonstration of the grammar point and very helpful guidance in practicing our reading skills
The instructor was patient, and able to break down complex topics in multiple ways if the first explanation did not work. The instructor was also willing to admit when they were unsure of the answer, and would find that answer to tell us at the start of the next class.

What could the instructor modify to help you learn more?

I'm not sure. Maybe it would be interesting to have a brief discussion on the differences between ancient and modern Greek?

Comments
Quite challenging
I thought the course was difficult, but fun. Sometimes I'd get Greek and Latin mixed up.

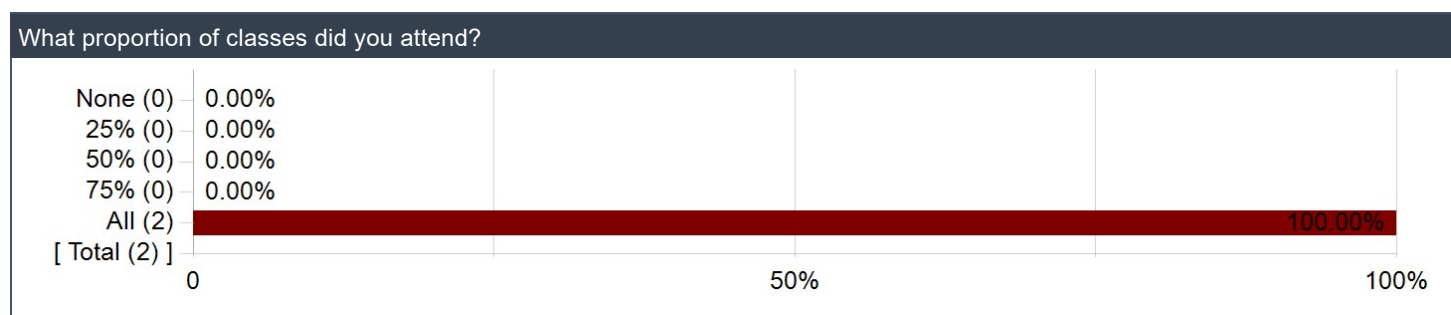

Why did you choose to take this course? (Select all that apply)

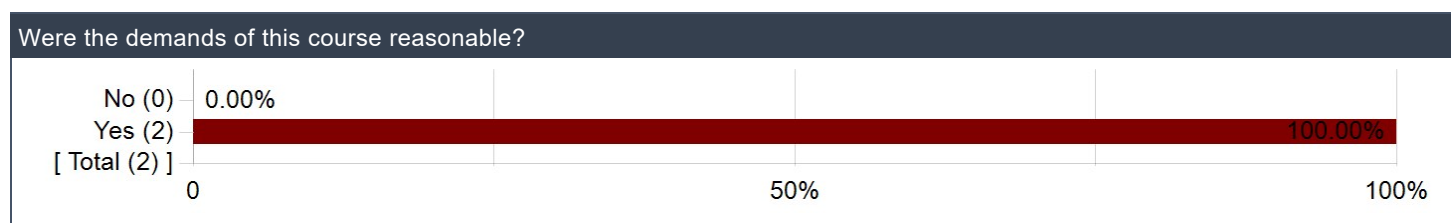

I had a strong desire to take this course.

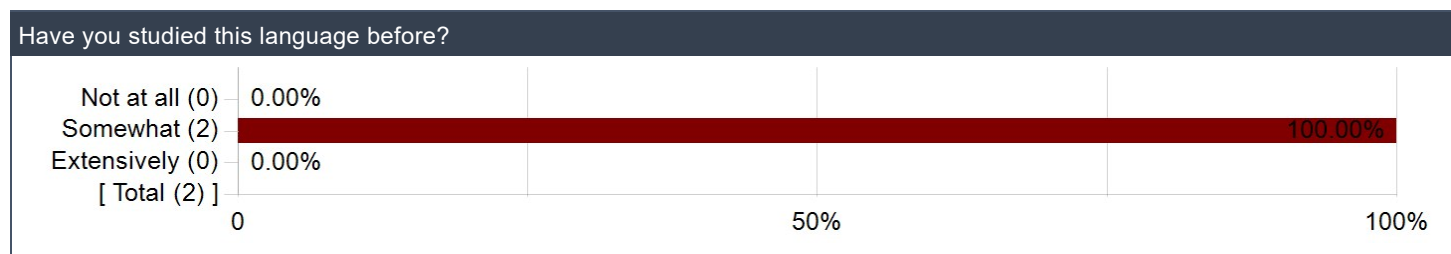

What proportion of classes did you attend?

Were the demands of this course reasonable?

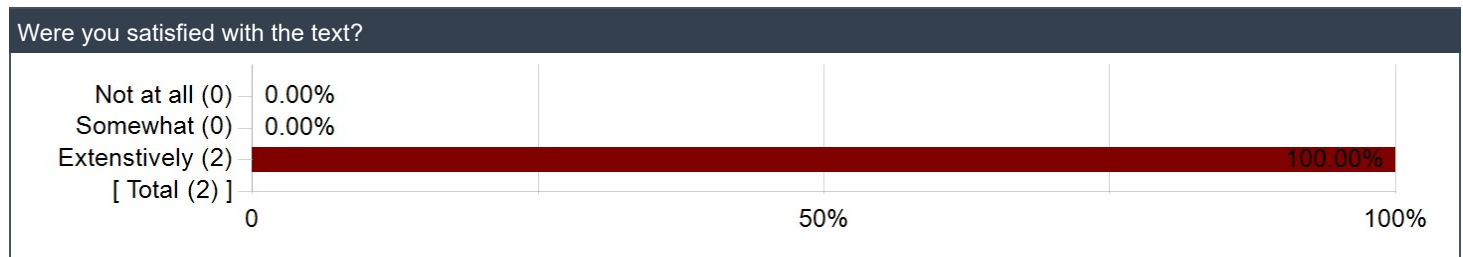

Have you studied this language before?

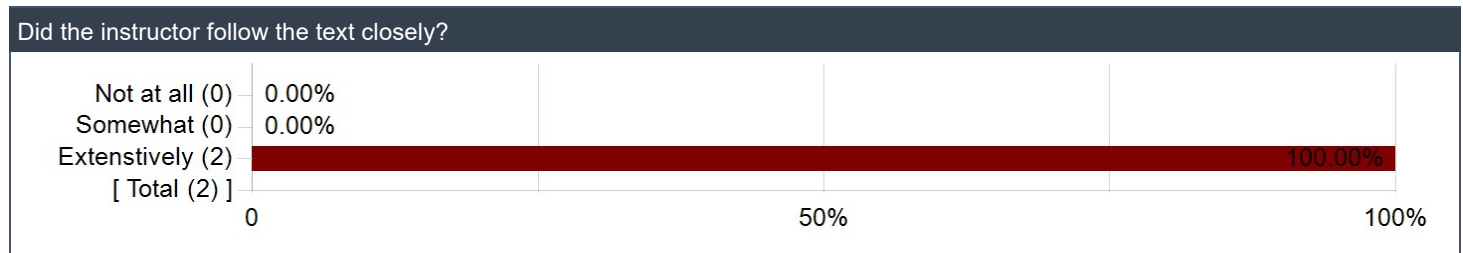

Rate the extent to which different aspects of the language were stressed:

	Mean	Median	Not At All	A Little	Some	A Lot	Extremely	Vigorously

Were you satisfied with the text?

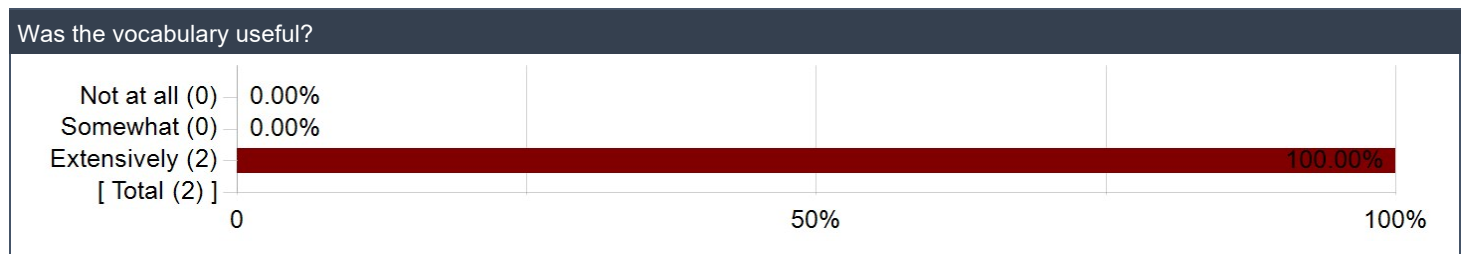

Did the instructor follow the text closely?

Explain:

Comments
great tie-in to real world, interesting texts
we followed the progression of the textbook with supplemental texts, including the gospel of Mark and Xenophon's Anabasis

Was the vocabulary useful?

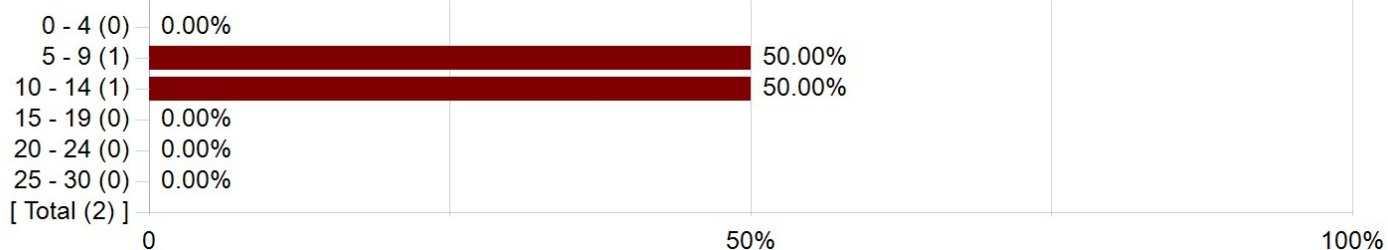

Why?

Comments
vocab was from readings
all of the vocabulary we learned pertain to either our textbook homework, our in-class reading, or our required composition assignments

Describe the format of the class (lecture, drills, etc.). Was this format productive? Please be specific.

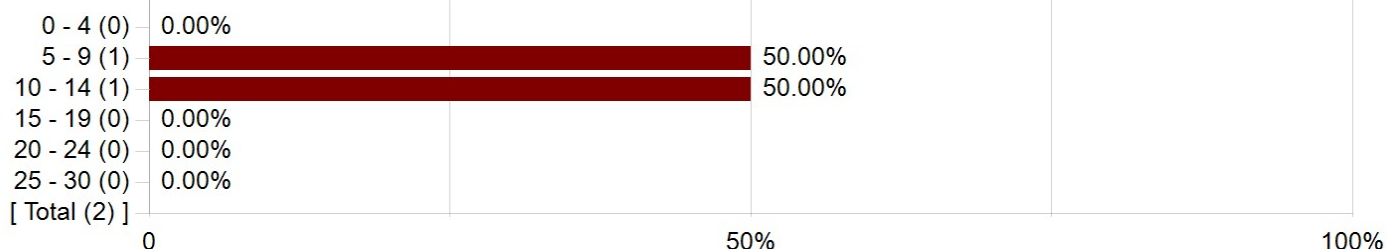

Comments
lecture a bit at beginning, translate together. pretty helpful
the class is largely lecture based but solicits extensive participation from students, which I think it productive for an introductory language class

How many hours were you expected to study each week for the class?

Were there daily assignments? (i.e., journals)?

If there were required outside activities (i.e. foreign films or SCOLA), describe your experience.

Comments
wider world of greek. very fun.
in order to complete the Wider World of Greek assignment, there were different activities available to fulfill this. a popular one was "Drill sessions" with TAs which was helpful to reinforce what we had learned in class

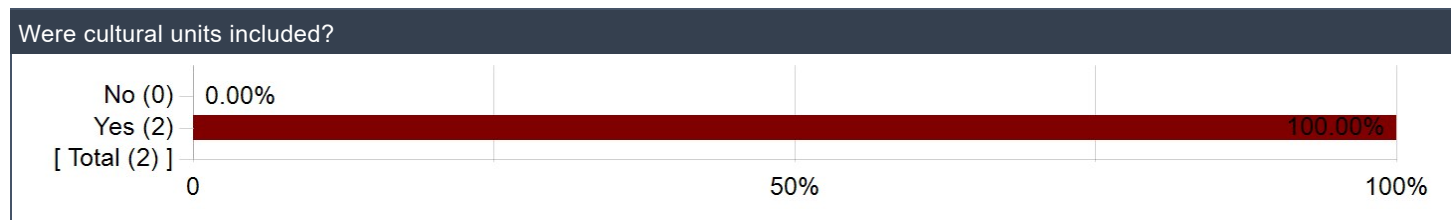

Was your instructor organized?

Mean	Median	Very Unorganized	Somewhat Unorganized	Fairly Organized	Somewhat Organized	Very Organized

Comments
always had a very updated syllabus
Jonah is a great professor, always keeps us on topic and makes even the hardest lessons fun and engaging

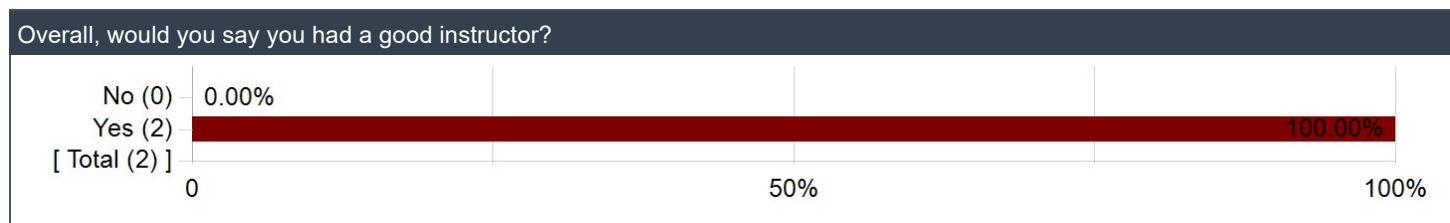

Were cultural units included?

Were they interesting or helpful?

Overall, would you say you had a good instructor?

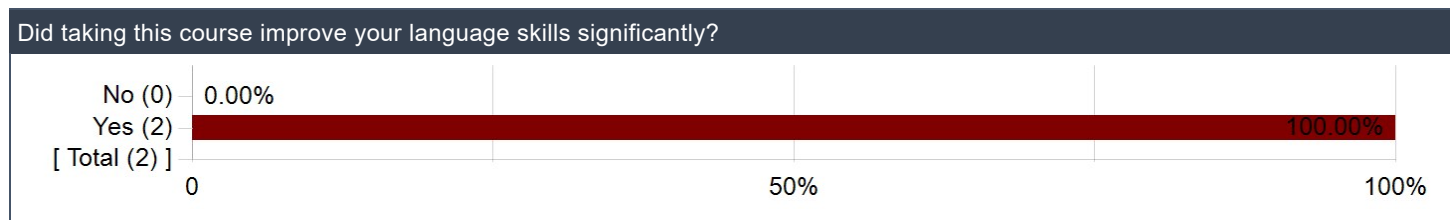

Why?

Comments
great prof, really knows a lot about greek and is super passionate, also super understanding + makes class very fun
Jonah is extremely encouraging, fair, engaging, and uses a lot of great techniques to get us to learn the language, such as emphasizing speaking and pronunciation

Please provide your TA's name. Did the TA answer your questions fully and clearly?

Comments
Ben and Chenxi. they were great in the drill sessions and are super knowledgeable

Did taking this course improve your language skills significantly?

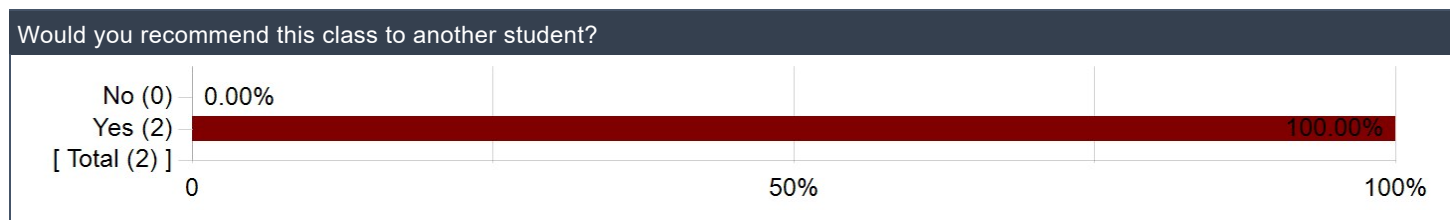

In what way?

Comments
every way
This built upon Attic Greek 101 and was certainly more challenging, but in a way that encouraged a lot of learning and growth. I feel prepared to begin reading introductory prose in Greek

How would you improve this course?

Comments
no suggestions, really nice overall nothing, this course is great. Maybe more cultural units!

Would you recommend this class to another student?

Why?

Comments
great all around anyone interested in the ancient Greek world should take this class, even if you are intimidated by the prospect of learning an ancient language. Jonah makes Attic Greek (notoriously difficult for English speakers) very approachable
