Thinking about your time in the class, what aspect of the instructor's teaching contributed most to your learning?

Comments
I would just say that he was open to questions when teaching so I was able to ask questions when I didn't understand something
He was very open to answering questions and knew the material really well. Well prepared too.

What could the instructor modify to help you learn more?

Comments
I would have preferred different office hours simply because they didn't align well with my availability, but that's mostly a me problem
Nothing in particular. The lecture time is just enough to cover the material.

Comments

Given that I've taken a calc II course before, I would say this class certainly still challenged me properly.

It was of medium difficulty.
