the history of gender and secuality
gender
Learned how to openly and respectfully discuss sexuality and gender.
I learned about gender and sexuality topics like masculinity, femininity, etc
Professor Hayek was great!
Learned how to critically analyze text about gender from all different time periods and in all different forms
We read a variety of texts covering diverse time periods, contexts, and issues concerning gender and sexuality. Rather than a deep-dive, this course provided me with a broadened understanding of how gender and sexuality have evolved over time and how they are manifested into society

Thinking about your time in the class, what aspect of the instructor's teaching contributed most to your learning?

The teacher helped us understand what types of texts we were reading, who the authors were, and why they wrote what they did which I enjoyed. So we didnt just examine what was written but the motivation behind it which reveals a lot.
Professor Hayek helped contextualize and explain a lot of the texts Discussions, readings, and everything! Kudos to her for great organization
I really appreciated how she let us participate in multiple forms so if we didnt feel comfortable talking in class we werent penalized
Professor Hayek was very knowledgeable and kind, there was a great balance between discussion among students and her explanation of concepts and ideas. She prompted us to answer thoughtful questions about every text, and made sure that we had a good understanding of every text we read

What could the instructor modify to help you learn more?

Comments
Maybe provide more feedback on participation and discussion posts so we know where we stand in the course.
More discussion and less lecture.
Nothing, professor Hayek is fantastic.
She was not very clear about her expectations. Our paper did not have a clear rubric or prompt which made it surprising when we received our grades. This left me feeling uncertain about how she would grade the rest of our assignments. She is a great professor I just think she needs to be more specific and provide more criteria.
I think she could be more clear on what her expectations are, they were super unclear on the first paper so the avergae was super low
N/A, it was a great course!

Some of the readings could be difficult. There's just a lack of transparency with expectations and grading that can make things difficult at times.
Easy civ, definitely take it if you have a hard schedule and need to take your civ, but honestly I didn't get a lot out of it, which is fine but wish I would've.
Not overly hard, but very interesting! perfect level for a core class.
pretty simple stuff, dont need prior experience in the field of gender studies
Not very difficult for someone who has only taken SOSC and HUM
