Thinking about your time in the class, what aspect of the instructor's teaching contributed most to your learning?

Comments
— The background he provided was always interesting and help contextualize the readings
The lectures were excellent for giving context to the readings. He was also able to adapt his lectures depending on the questions we asked but it never felt like we would go on unwanted tangents.

What could the instructor modify to help you learn more?

Comments
— This class felt like a history class, I would have liked more discussion among the students. Even though the historical background were great supplements, there were times he would talk for 90% of the class time which shouldn't be the case. Discussion were typically for only about 20 mins of the class (1 hr 20 mins class).
— Additionally, I think when students didn't respond to questions, he would try to fill up the space by talking more but I don't think that should be the case. I think he should have given us room to talk more and asked us more questions
—Provide feedback on essays
Give a bit more time for discussions maybe but the time spent on lectures felt pretty valuable.
