Were you satisfied with the materials (texts, audios, videos, exercises, etc.)?

Please explain:

Comments
Some of the audio files are so low quality, even if they were in English I would have trouble understanding.
Box was a great resource and I really appreciated the homework videos
Some of the listening materials audios are kind of blurry and unclear, with a lot of background noise.
The correction were helpful.

What did you learn about culture through language?

Comments
The reading comprehension exercises taught me a bit about the history of the french language (changing masculine v feminine, french as national language) but classes also featured images and other media which showed popular artists and more.
I learned a lot about different places in France, Francophone cultural events, and even culture in other Francophone countries
We learned about movies and sports this quarter, which made for some good content to talk about.

If Discussion Board/Blog Tools were used in your course, how useful did you find them?

Comments
Cultural activities didn't really feel all that helpful, they were written in english and we compared the culture we could observe (French) with the one we knew.
discussion boards were definitely useful for the cultural activities
The cultural activities were a great source of media to practice my French with.

How useful did you find the required out of class aural/oral activities (e.g. cultural activities, conversational practice, activities of your choice, films, etc.)?

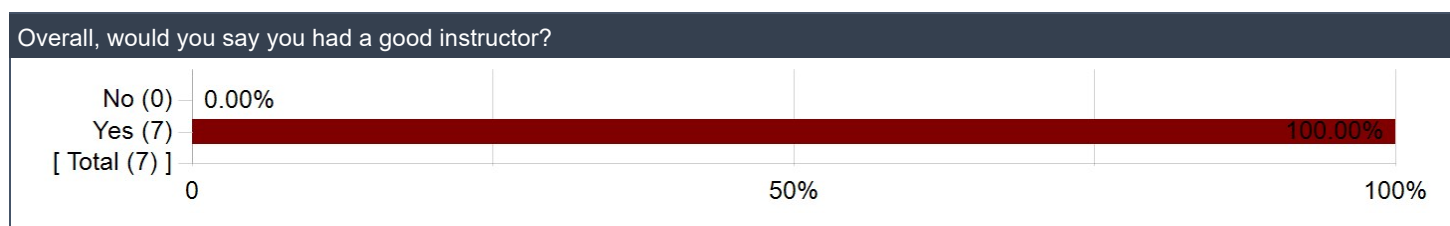

Comments
I got to watch some films that had been gathering dust on my watchlist, and learned a few new french phrases in the context.
very!

Professor Bordeaux uses the very brief time we have efficiently while still allowing questions from the class. She immediately responded to emails and I've never had a class where assignments have been graded so quickly.

Better audio files for oral exams/exercises, and maybe make some document with the grammar rules we have been learning (I kept having to go back to past assignments to see).
