Thinking about your time in the class, what aspect of the instructor's teaching contributed most to your learning?

Comments
He was very effective at leading discussions the moderation of discussion and pointed questions
Is appreciated that he allowed flexibility with deadlines
He contributed to discussions but it wasn't too much, I think his facilitation was a good blend of guidance and letting us share our thoughts

What could the instructor modify to help you learn more?

Comments
I would get rid of the final exam in favor of a final essay I dont think in class essays are very productive the quarter is so short so perhaps we could have more group projects so that each group could focus on a different topic, allowing us to learn about each other's topics His questions for the critical essay and analysis were very vague. I like that we have the freedom to choose what we want to talk about but more prompt questions would be great

Graded on participation in class, 2 essays, and a final Its a low stakes but interesting class that won't stress you out but is still engaging it was managable
As a social sciences major, I didn't find the course very difficult at all. Still learned a lot.
