Were you satisfied with the materials (texts, audios, videos, exercises, etc.)?

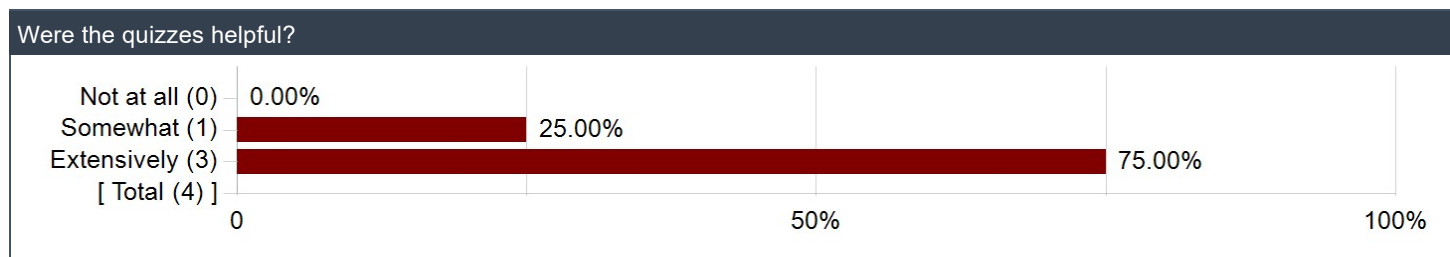

Please explain:

Comments
I don't like how hard to hear some of the audios are, in terms of the quality of the audio.
Learned a lot of grammar which was super useful. I love the way the book is structured. I'm not sure what the point of the audios are, though.
The class materials were extremely thorough as was Prof. Bourdeaux.

What did you learn about culture through language?

Comments
A lot about French movies
I learned about how I ought to behave when I am studying abroad there very soon.

Were the quizzes helpful?

If Discussion Board/Blog Tools were used in your course, how useful did you find them?

Comments
They were good to learn more about a topic related to our current unit and practice talking about it in French.
I did not like the exposés, I thought they were unnecessary and took up a lot of time
The exposé activities were a fun addition to the course. They were helpful in my understanding the speech of my classmates and not just my prof.

How useful did you find the required out of class aural/oral activities (e.g. cultural activities, conversational practice, activities of your choice, films, etc.)?

Comments
I think they helped train my ear for listening to French in a more real context.
Great, except I wish we had the option to talk to a language assistant in person rather than do TalkAbroad.
Very rigorous, but I believe they have dramatically improved my speaking abilities.

Prof. Bourdeaux is amazing. She is very positive and helpful when you are struggling and congratulatory when you succeed. She has made me excited to make this language a part of my life going forward.

How would you improve this course?

Comments

Get rid of the exposés, give option to talk with language assistant instead of TalkAbroad

There is a lot of work. I understand the purpose of almost all of it, but it was overwhelming at times.

In what way?

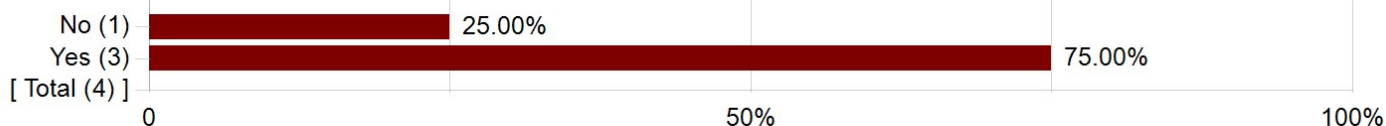

Comments

I think my speaking abilities in particular have improved a lot.

I feel more confident speaking and writing text.

Would you recommend this class to another student?

Would you recommend this class to another student?

Why?

Comments

Unless they were very interested in learning French, I wouldn't recommend it because it is a lot of work.

Because of how pleasant Prof. Bourdeaux is.
