Discussions
the readings are comprehensive lectures are fantastic — every class is pretty well-structured, and prof. martin always prepares thought-provoking questions for us to discuss i loved all the discussions we had in class, especially when people disagreed on something

Additional comments about the course:

Comments
Laura is a good professor, but I feel like she is being limited by the department's curriculum if you're debating whether to take power or not — take it!! i was really worried that i wouldn't do well in this class, but it turned out to be amazing. i would really regret it if i had chosen anything other than power; and prof. martin made it easier and so very very fun!!

Thinking about your time in the class, what aspect of the instructor's teaching contributed most to your learning?

Comments
Knowledge of the books
Professor Martin's lecture is inspiring the lecture, questions she raised to guide our discussions in the class, and office hours

What could the instructor modify to help you learn more?

Comments
maybe spend more time on reconstruction of arguments before go on to discussion nothing

Comments
The class is not hard if you do the readings. Laura is a good professor that looks for a very specific writing style, so if you learn how to write in her style you will do welll.

i didn't have any background in philosophy and did not actually read anything philosophy book prior to taking power, so it was pretty scary at first, but it turned out to be alright; office hours with laura are super helpful to better understand the author's ideas
