Course materials did a good job at preparing me for class.
Everything was great.
I think that there was often so many assignments due per day that it was hard to deeply focus on eacb one.

What did you learn about culture through language?

Comments
I learned a lot about the cultural norms of Brazilian culture and some informal ways they speak the language.
I learned a lot about Brazilian culture.
I think that I was able to gain a greater understanding about the culture through the cultural activities.

If Discussion Board/Blog Tools were used in your course, how useful did you find them?

Comments
These tools were somewhat useful. The blog assignments usually required new vocabulary, so they were helpful in exposing me to vocab across many different topics.
Not very, they felt like busy work to me.
I think that they were useful for improving my writing skills.

How useful did you find the required out of class aural/oral activities (e.g. cultural activities, conversational practice, activities of your choice, films, etc.)?
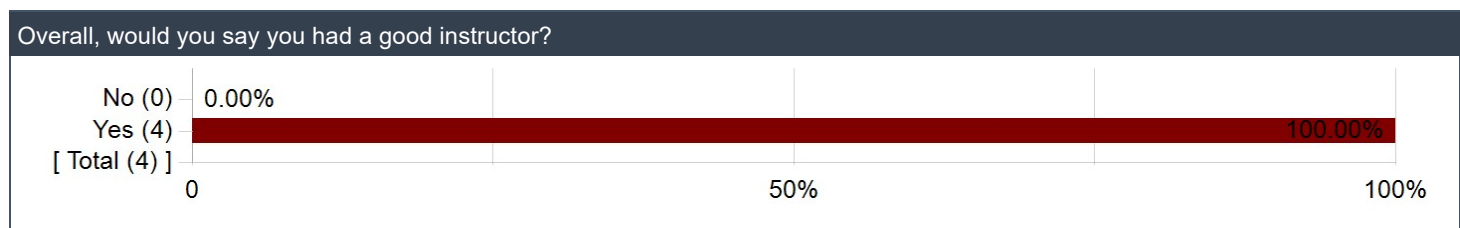

Comments
They were very useful.
They were very useful in terms of understanding other speakers with varying accents as well as learning where my weaknesses were in terms of accent, grammar, and vocabulary.
I think that the films were more useful than the cultural activites.

How would you improve this course?

Comments
NA
Some of the assignments felt like busy work to me, particularly the blogs and the compositions.
Nothing. Everything is great.
I think I would put a greater emphasis on the learning in class and build more off of that instead of frontloading material in the textbook and then not discussing the textbook information in class.

In what way?

Comments
I now understand the fundamentals, have conversations, and much more.
I learned a lot about pronunciation as well as a great deal about grammar (more than I thought we could get through in one quarter).
Started learnign how to speak portuguese
