I loved the class
All were helpful
I thought the material was engaging and useful, and relevant to discussions
the exercises and textbook are very comprehensive

What did you learn about culture through language?

Comments
I learned about food, culture, and regions in Italy.
The culture of the regions, immigration, pollution, pop culture, and poverty
We were exposed to materials that helped us engage with authentic elements of italian culture, from transportation to the country's history of immigration. Through readings and various other media, including commercials, we explored the ways different uses of language play a role in shaping different cultures within Italy.
A lot about immigration, family structures, the economy, cultural values immigration, history, food, culture, cinema, adds

If Discussion Board/Blog Tools were used in your course, how useful did you find them?

Comments
Good practice for the writing assignments
I like our discussion posts
somewhat – but not the most useful aspect

How useful did you find the required out of class aural/oral activities (e.g. cultural activities, conversational practice, activities of your choice, films, etc.)?

| Comments |
| --- |
| cultural activities were fun but kind of an inconvenience. Everything else was helpful |
| I found all of these to be very helpful |
| i enjoyed them a lot – and to be honest if they weren't compulsory I would have missed out on them due to not prioritising them. |

Good facilitator of conversation, organized instructor, informed lecturer, kind person
One of, if not the best, teachers I have ever had Veronica was an amazing teacher. She organized the course to build on the skills we developed in 201 and every assignment helped strengthen our speaking, written, or auditory skills. Class conversations along with weekly quizzes helped solidify the grammatical structures we learned. Veronica really helped me strengthen my comfort with conversational speaking and was always available to help outside of class.
Professor Vegna is awesome, and I'm sad I won't have her again next quarter
I loved her!
Professor Vegna is amazing. She is a phenomenal teacher who creates an encouraging learning environment and makes people be passionate about learning italian! She is also extremely funny and a genuinely nice person.

My vocabulary and grammar became way more advanced. Also, I am a lot more fluid with my speaking
I feel that i can speak and engage with Italian at a higher level
i practised my speaking skills tremendously – since the class is small. I also improved my grammar extensively and my vocab too simultaneously.
