Opinions expressed in these evaluations are those of students enrolled in the specific course and do not represent the University.

What are the most important things that you learned in this course? Please reflect on the knowledge and skills you gained.

Comments
The course is mainly dedicated to the Greek grammar and the reading skills that apply to original texts.
I felt as though I was really thinking about the structure of Greek in a great deal of depth in class!
I think the most important thing that I learned in this class was conditions, the optative, and the subjunctive.

Describe how aspects of this course (lectures, discussions, labs, assignments, etc.) contributed to your learning.

Comments
The lectures illustrate the grammar point clearly. We also did a lot of excercise during class time to enhance our reading skills. The assignments and the feedbacks are helpful for me to grasp the points of the textbook.
I believe being called upon randomly was very useful in getting us to actively participate in class and engage with Greek in a meaningful manner!
I appreciated the teacher making connections to Greek texts other than our textbook. I also appreciated the flexibility with the assignments, and the detailed feedback provided by the instructor.

Thinking about your time in the class, what aspect of the instructor's teaching contributed most to your learning?

| Comments |
| The illustration of the grammar points, and the guidance for us to go through the Greek texts and practice our reading skills. |
| Again, I believe the work done in class to study syntax and focus us to consider the sentence or the grammatical element in the moment was very beneficial to our learning! |
| Having us read the Greek out loud, as well as occasionally calling on people by going around in a circle. I get nervous in class sometimes, and this would let me prepare my answers. |

What could the instructor modify to help you learn more?

| Comments |
| --- |
| The classes could be more clearly divided into different sections – some for grammar and other points on the textbook, and some for reading practice. |
| N/A |
| I think I'd have handouts, either on canvas or paper versions, re explaining some of the concepts from the textbook with practice questions. |

| Challenging but Manageable |
| This course was moderately difficult. I have been learning Latin for a while, so I was familiar with some of the topics this course covered, just not how they functioned within the Greek language. I really enjoyed comparing what I know of Latin and using that while learning Greek. |

Most of what we did would come from our textbook
We did not really follow a specific text for the duration of the course, but read some portions of Xenophon and Demosthenes
I LOVE BEN HE IS THE BEST.
We followed chapters of the book for homework.

The vocabulary was also from the textbook
Establishing a strong vocabulary is integral to creating the foundations of the language
n/a
Ensuring that we learned vocabulary was definitely helpful to be able to read more effectively.

Describe the format of the class (lecture, drills, etc.). Was this format productive? Please be specific.

Comments
Translate at home, and then translate in class. Some lectures about grammar/vocab points in class when we got to them. Pretty good system that let us get hands–on experience but also the necessary guidance.
The format of the class included preparing homework and going over it in class. It was productive but I think a variety of assignments and a greater focus on reading prose may have been more helpful drills
We went over the homework and discussed; I think this could've been more productive if we'd gone faster.

Learned more vocab and grammar
This built upon the first two quarters of Attic Greek and expanded our vocabulary and grammar skills confidence in pronunciation and translation
By the end, I understood a lot more about subordinate clauses and greek grammar.
