Learned about different cognitive processes like susceptibility to illusions and categorization. Was super interesting
I learned how to decipher between my thoughts and the authors thoughts.
it's fascinating to see how the mind plays a role in everyday things such as having preferences for certain foods, or seeing visual illusions etc
How to read and understand empirical studies and topics related to cognitive processes in general
I truly enjoyed the content of this course. I also learning how to write and discern research papers and work from other experts and researchers.
I learned about the functions of the mind and how the mind perceives reality
I learned a lot about the basics of psychology, I gained skills in writing in a different way.

Describe how aspects of this course (lectures, discussions, labs, assignments, etc.) contributed to your learning.

Everything was helpful. Lectures (although not mandatory) were helpful for my weekly responses. Discussions were nice too.
Discussions helped a lot with understanding exactly what is asked of us in our essays and papers. Lecture helped to get a general sense of topics discussed each week.
it's amazing to connect what i learn from this class to my HUM class (language and the human) which just makes me more interested in both topics Lectures were very helpful to understand the discussion papers and the discussions were very open ended and organized. Really enjoyed taking this class.
Discussions helped deepen my understanding of the lectures
The discussion sections were the most helpful where we discussed the readings from our assignments and talked about tips and skills necessary to perform well in the class.
The lectures and discussions really helped drive home the points made in the articles.
They helped me understand the materials/lectures/readings and also connect this understanding to past weeks.

Thinking about your time in the class, what aspect of the instructor's teaching contributed most to your learning?

Comments
I liked how in–depth the discussions were, lots of questions asked and answered
I believe the professor having us do activities in class about our readings from that week and telling us exactly what she expects each time.
i loved how we went over the weekly readings in the discussion classes but a little bit more — so it felt like I was getting new information as well as contributing my thoughts to the conversation
The instructor came with a clear outline of what the discussion will be like on that day.
She was great at guiding the class, asking questions, and suggesting how to approach certain ideas.
She was very open to office hours and provided strong guidance in our final essay. She also moderated engaging discussions that helped us understand class content. She also structured weekly discussion papers and our final in such a way that allowed us to successfully articulate what we know and have learned throughout the course.
Her prompting of discussion and openness to listen to feedback from us
She was very enthusiastic and encouraging to participation

Comments
Had no background experience, was super interesting and not too difficult. Just do readings and attend lecture.
I was always interested in psychology but this took it to another whole level ! though the weekly discussion papers were difficult to write at first since I didn't have a great idea of what the professor had wanted but after a bit I got the hang of it!
