Different aspects of theater: acting, directing, movement, sound, dramaturgy, etc...
How to think from the Director's/actor's point of view in order to come up with a successful Drama production.
really learning more about plays and everything that goes on behind the scene, not just acting.
Elements of dramaturgy and important elements of a successful piece of performing arts. Methods of appreciating theatre.
I learned at how to become a better actor and how to better understand theatrical performances.
how to be more empathetic — theatre is a vehicle for empathy and really appreciating this as a driver of poor and in person theatre in a world of digitalized media
My public speaking skills strengthened a lot, as a direct affect of this class.
I learned about all the elements that go into drama: directing, acting, dramaturgy, design, etc.

Describe how aspects of this course (lectures, discussions, labs, assignments, etc.) contributed to your learning.

Comments
We had discussions and exercises that were really interesting and fun. Assignments were interesting to force a better understanding on what we learned in class.
I enjoyed the readings as well as the assignments. These gave me a deeper insight into understanding the components of a play/movie/ work of art etc.
the reading discussions really helped me think more about the production of these pieces.
Classes are based around daily readings, helpful for clarifying things.
lectures were very collaborative and learned the most through hands on acting exercises
The readings were always relevant.
The classes were great. We learned by doing. We acted, directed, designed, and everything in between. The additional readings were also very helpful.

Prof. Bockley is a great teacher. He is very knowledgeable and makes the class super interesting and engaging Great course and would highly recommend. Note that even though it is an art class you still have to read and write papers. Nonetheless, the class is highly rewarding.

| Nothing really. I really liked him. Graded slightly harshly sometimes. |
| Nothing! He's superb!!!!! |
| n/a |
| Wish the class focused more on acting earlier on. |
| nothing!!!all amazing |
| I wish we had spent longer on directing. That portion of the class felt a little rushed. |

It's an easy and a fun class!!
not hard, quite fun
Interesting and quite manageable.
This class is a perfect intro level class with no prior experience needed.
The class was not difficult. What is important is that you show up and try. It can be a little embarrassing, but overall, the course was manageable for me, and I have no background in theater.
